Minor Ball Teams Battle For Playoff Positions

After four weeks of play and nearing the end of the league schedule, the Babe Ruth and Little League find themselves in a tight race to settle the four playoff births in the two leagues.

Many of the games the past week have shown a tremendous improvement in calibre of play as the young fellows settle down with more confidence in their play and pitchers are starting to hold the upper hand.

In the Little League the Vulcan Yanks hold a slight edge at the top, closely followed by Champion and the Vulcan Tigers. Carmangay and then Mossleigh bring up the rear but with a couple of games left none of the positions are secure.

In the Babe Ruth section it is Carmangay on top, followed by Vulcan and Milo with Mossleigh and Champion trying for the final playoff birth.

Little League Standing:

	Won	Lost
Vulcan Yanks	4	2
Vulcan Tigers	4	3
Champion	3	5
Mossleigh	2	4

Babe Ruth Standing:

	Won	Lost
Carmangay	5	1
Vulcan	4	3
Milo	3	3
Mossleigh	2	3
Carmangay	1	5

ard is becoming questionable now. He said this can be the Canadian Century only if thoroughly trained leadership is developed. "Others will take your place if you can't or won't fill the need."

In replying to the toast to the school given by Nadine Arney, High School Principal H. H. Mumby felt students had learned to respect the teachers and had developed a high level of academic progress through the year. He expressed satisfaction in the teamwork shown by the staff and said the students had received all the help the teachers could possibly give them and wished them success in the coming exams.

A large crowd of students and parents attended the dance in the auditorium following the exercises.

Annual 4-H Calf Show Sat., June 16

The results of a winter's calf feeding program of 72 young members of Vulcan and District 4-H Clubs will be judged Saturday, June 16, at the Fourth Annual Calf Show and Sale to be held at the Vulcan arena.

This popular event begins before most townfolk are out of bed with the weighing at 7:00 a.m. Berrywater calves are shown at 8:30 and the other clubs Lomond, Arrowwood, Vulcan West-Ensign, follow in that order through the morning with Championship classes starting at 10:30, these to be judged by Grant MacEwan of Calgary.

During the noon hour out-of-town buyers and company representatives will be guests at a luncheon to be followed by presentation of trophies at 1:30 p.m. Sale of the calves begins at 2:00 with Gerry Going of the High River Auction Mart as auctioneer. The show and sale is supervised by District Agriculturist Clarence Roth.

The popularity of the event is increasing each year and buying support by businessmen and individuals has been good. The sale provides a simple method of assistance to the 4-H movement as it is possible to go into the cattle business briefly, get out again for a few dollars and do a good turn in the bargain without ever having touched a critter. Anyone can buy a calf, consign it to a packer and his payment comes in the difference in his buying price and the later selling price of the animal.

Services Held For Champion Man

A well known resident of the Champion district, Rheinart Emil Maronde died on May 30, at the age of 86.

Born at Carls-Dorf, Pommern, Germany, he came to Canada in 1909 and homesteaded on the Travers district. He moved to Champion in 1938 and had resided there since that time. He was predeceased by his wife, Anna, in November, 1960.

Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Elsie Williams, Mrs. Harvey (Louise) Beaubier and Mrs. Frank (Martha) Beaubier, all of Champion, Mrs. Fred (Helen) Walker of Lomond; seven grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren.

Services were held at the Champion United Church on Saturday, June 2, with Rev. Peter Dawson and Rev. William Morrison officiating. Pall-bearers were Douglas Walker, Ronnie Walker, John Krasman, Lloyd McLeod, Nels MacDonald, and Donald Beaubier. Interment was in Archmount Memorial Gardens, Lethbridge.

The Vulcan Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Farm Safety Essay Winners

Prize winners in the 12th Farm Safety Essay Competition conducted each spring have been announced by the Alberta Safety Council.

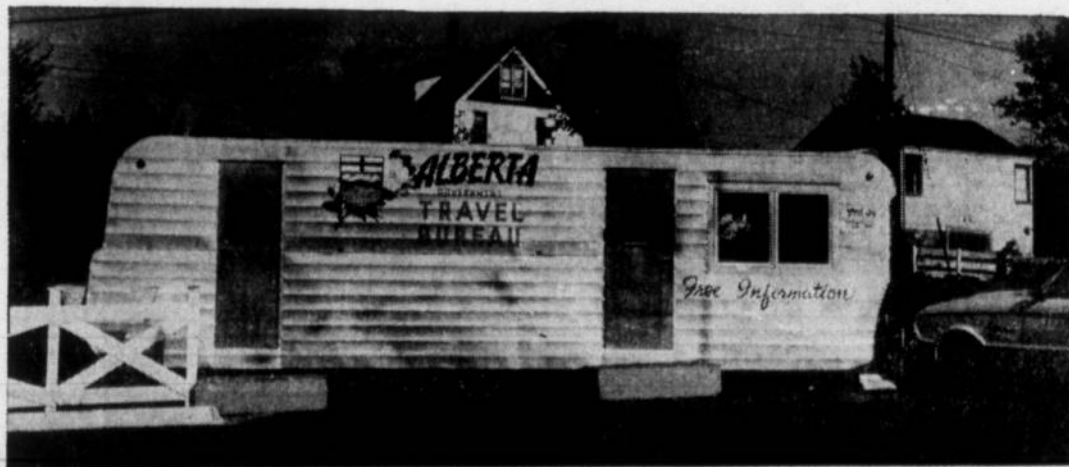

In the County of Vulcan Schools the best essay from grades seven and eight was written by Martin Truss of Herronton School. In grades five and six the winner was Anne Marie Gallagher of Brant School.

The prize in each case is a distinctive pin as a personal memento for the author of the Winning Essay and a hand lettered certificate mounted on a hard-wood plaque for the schoolroom.

The Honorable R. D. Jorgenson, chairman of the Essay Committee of the Alberta Safety Council says that this year's entry was the largest in the 12 years the contest has been held. Fifty-six school divisions or counties entered, with 2,140 school rooms and 48,982 pupils in grades 5-6-7 and 8. This includes the Indian School at Ft. Chipewyan and students of the Correspondence School Branch.

In addition to the school division prizes, first and second prizes of $50 and $25 are given to the pupils from grades 5 and 6, who, in the opinion of the judges, have written the best and next best essays for that group in the whole province; and the same for pupils from grades 7 and 8 at the provincial level.

Randy Malmberg, Bob Beagle and Gary Beagle were among those in the senior class at the Closing Exercises, at the Vulcan High School on Friday.

Visitors entering Seattle from the south will be encouraged to visit Alberta, and will have ample expert information made available to them, by the Alberta Government Travel Bureau trailer, (above) which has been located at a strategic point, 16640 Pacific Highway South. The trailer, which has been located at Deep Creek, Idaho, during the previous holiday seasons, is equipped as a well designed travel information booth, and is staffed by two Albertans, James Barr and Craig Wallace who have served in similar counselling capacity in previous years. Officials of the Alberta Travel Bureau are anticipating a major influx of tourists who have been attracted to the Seattle World's Fair and who will be completing a circle tour during their holiday jaunt.

Many from the east will travel west on the Trans Canada Highway and return via the States. Others will reverse the route. Many more are expected from the west and south western States and these people will be encouraged to travel north to Canada, into Alberta by the new Trans Canada mountain route and return to the States on this side of the Rockies. The Alberta Travel Bureau trailer, located adjacent to the Seattle-Tacoma airport on a filling station property, is identified by large signs at the site, and on the route leading to it. The mobile bureau will be open through June to September. Indications of the extent of foreign travel to Alberta may be judged by enquiries received to date, 52,010 compared with 44,677 for the same period last year.

Farmers' "Bee" Gives Aid When Needed

When John Salken of the Berrywater district died two weeks ago the state in which his wife, Irene, was left is similar to that suffered by the occasional farm family each year. In Mrs. Salken's case, she has the responsibility of three sons, Donald and David in their late teens, and a younger boy Teddy. She also is faced with the managing of a farm home, a section of land and some livestock.

At the time of his passing, Mr. Salken had completed the seeding but something under 200 acres of summer-fallowing remained.

In addition to passing condolences to the stricken family, neighbors and friends from as far away as the Lomond road organized on Monday, May 28, and staged a "Bee" on the uncompleted field work.

Early in the morning 18 outfits pulled onto the field and by 10:30 the job was done and the boys were lined up for coffee and pie served by ladies of the district.

Taking part in the "Bee" were the outfits of Chester Rae, Clayton Clarkson, Clifford Webber, Stan Wickstrom, Ed Uily, Allen Sinclair, Bunty Loose, Bob Gerding, Joe Gerding, John Graham, Ed Richardson, Lloyd Richardson, Carson Love, Frank Love, Bill Sharp, Stewart Douglass, Archie Oldfield and Lawrence Orchard.

HERRONTON FARROW

The May meeting of the United Church Women of Farrow was held at the home of Mrs. Paul Randle with Mrs. Carl Stiner assisting. It was decided to hold the Sunday School and church picnic at Wyndham park on Sunday, June 10 with church services at 1:30 p.m. and the picnic lunch at 2:00 p.m. with everyone to bring weiners and buns and a salad and cold drinks. Coffee and ice-cream will be provided for all. Games, etc., will take place following dinner. In the event of inclement weather the same proceedings will be at the church instead. The June meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Mac Switzer.

Randy Malmberg, Bob Beagle and Gary Beagle were among those in the senior class at the Closing Exercises, at the Vulcan High School on Friday.

Blades were also loaned by Norman Hilz and Bob Middleton.

Mrs. Salken faces an uncertain future. Her eldest son Don, whose 4-H work last year brought him Grand Champion award at the local Beef Show and Sale, embarked on an electrical and TV career in 1961. David and Terry are still in school so Mrs. Salken is not sure whether she might rent out the farm or remain on it for a time.

The goodness of her neighbors in their act of kindness has, in no small way, helped to bring relief in her time of need.

Students Present Piano Recital

Saturday afternoon, in the United Church basement, over 70 mothers and friends were the guests of Mrs. A. Almond at her annual piano and vocal recital. The youngest members who started off the two-hour program showed great promise with their numbers. Vocal renditions and duets that added such variety were thoroughly enjoyed.

The result of many hours of practice was displayed by the older students with their varied selections and were the inspiration for the beginners.

Miss Eleanor Keenan, a guest artist from Calgary, favored the audience with intricate piano selections. A very talented artist who has won many festival awards, Miss Keenan expects to leave shortly for the States where she will further her training.

Mrs. Almond, after being presented with a token of appreciation from the parents, most graciously thanked Mrs. Iris Shields for the lovely corsage and the mothers for their generous gift.

The most enjoyable afternoon was set off with the serving of a delicious lunch to everyone present.

Radio Amateurs Organize

A new organization, the Vulcan County Amateur Radio Club, was recently formed in Vulcan with the object of banding together all amateur radio operators in the county.

Membership of the club is presently comprised of five licensed amateur radio operators and four others who will be taking their examinations by the end of June. Officers elected at the organization meeting were J. L. Moyer, president; Ross White, vice-president; Mrs. Freda Wilson, secretary-treasurer; Douglas Wilson, technical advisor.

The club will meet the fourth Thursday of each month at the Civil Defence Headquarters, Carson Block, Vulcan. Any and all persons interested in communications and experimenting along this line are welcome to join. The club will, in the near future, install its own amateur radio station for use of its members.

Sponsored by the Vulcan Civil Defence Unit, the club is affiliated with the American Radio Relay League.

Paintings Will Be Displayed

Of interest to the people of Vulcan will be a display of art by the Vulcan Art Council, Saturday, June 9. A display of paintings from the elementary school and Eskimo handicrafts will also be shown.

Tea will be served by the ladies of St. Aldhelm's Guild and a painting by Mrs. Peter Pickersgill on display at the Vulcan Pharmacy will be given as a door prize.

THE WEATHER

Cool, cloudy weather with scattered showers has again been the picture for the past week. Showers have been so varied and scattered that it is impossible to arrive at an average rainfall for any particular district. Generally speaking, crop conditions are probably better than at this time a year ago.

Hinman Speaker At Closing Exercises

At the Closing Exercises held Friday, June 1, honoring this year's Vulcan County Grade 12 class, students were encouraged to develop qualities of leadership, patience and perseverance through continued education, whether at the university level or whatever vocation they might choose. The manner in which they met and overcame such crises as a late supper, full program of entertainment and speakers and a complete move to another hall is fair indication that the seeds of such knowledge had already been sown.

Two hundred and eighty teachers, guests, parents and grade 12 students enjoyed a turkey supper, catered by the Vulcan Hotel Dining Room, at the Elementary School auditorium and re-assembled at the High School later where an impressive procession of the Grade 12 class into the auditorium preceded a program of speakers and entertainment ending with an address by guest speaker the Hon. E. W. Hinman, Provincial Treasurer.

Hon. Rev. Peter Dawson, Speaker of the Legislature, introduced Mr. Hinman as one well acquainted with his evening subject having served 11 years as school superintendent.

Apparently enjoying the change from election campaigning, Mr. Hinman's address sparkled with comparisons of teen-age witticisms of the '30's and those of the teen-agers he was addressing. As in

— ADULT POLIO BOOSTERS —

All adults who received the first three injections of poliomyelitis vaccine prior to and during the year 1958 are now due for their booster injection. These may be had free of charge at any of our Well Baby Clinics.

These well-baby clinics are held for the purpose of weighing and measuring infants and toddlers, and discussing any problems with parents regarding feeding, training and general care. Your child should be immunized at the following times: Starting at three months of age, a series of four doses, three at monthly intervals and the fourth, six months later, of the combined vaccine containing diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus and polio (D.P.T. Polio). A booster dose of the above vaccine should be given at three years of age. A further booster, Diphtheria, Tetanus and Polio (D.T. Polio) should be given prior to school entrance.

Smallpox vaccination should be started any time after three months of age and before the child is one year old with revaccination taking place every fifth year thereafter. There is no charge at these clinics which are a service of the Foothills Health Unit.

The Armstrong Whitworth Argosy transport aircraft, two of which are shown here in the "Clamshell" rear doors of another, is being introduced into Transport Command of Britain's Royal Air Force for use in a tactical transport role. The unusual "Clamshell" doors are a modification on the military version of the Argosy designed to facilitate rapid loading and unloading of bulky military equipment. As a freighter the Argosy can carry a maximum load of 29,000 lb., or as a troop transport 63 fully equipped men.

CAN YOU
Live on Debt?

NO! You and I cannot go continuously in debt. Yet, the Canadian Government has steadily been in debt since 1948 under Liberal and Conservative Administration.

During this time, interest on the National Debt has increased from 425 millions of dollars annually to 850 millions of dollars. The Alberta Social Credit government has made Alberta the only debt free province in Canada. Give this know how a chance to work federally.

This is Jim Coutts

Liberal Candidate

Youth

Born at High River, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Coutts of Nanton. Educated at Nanton and at University of Alberta where he took Bachelor of Arts and Law degrees. Articled in Calgary. Not married.

Experience

Worked in politics at early age at the ground level, filling envelopes for candidates, putting up posters. At 14 joined the Liberals. At 15 became office manager and then campaign manager for the 1953 Macleod Liberal candidate. At University, built up the Liberal campus party from low on the totem pole to the top place which it has occupied in past three annual elections. Elected national president of Canadian Young Liberals against older candidate with much prestige. Made countrywide tour of Canada. Member of conference at Kingston on world education in 1960 and conference on Canadian-American relations in 1958. Speaks French adequately. Well known for his grassroots work in Macleod constituency and for short, punchy speeches.

Sincerity

Decided that politics would be his field even before joining Liberal party. At university specialized in political science, political economics and constitutional history, besides law. Mature thinker, so much so that for several years has been member of policy committees or has chaired them at Liberal national gatherings. Determined that long-term program will be used, no piecemeal panic legislation. A sense of mission and a tremendous supply of energy to back it up.

LITTLE BOW CONFERENCE

The 44th WI Conference of the Little Bow Constituency was held in the Champion United Church on May 30, with 68 registering during the day. Mrs. A. W. Maisey, Constituency Convener presided with Mrs. Morley Scobie as secretary.

Mrs. Russell Hegland of Champion gave the devotional. A moment of silence for departed members was recognized. The welcome by Mrs. Montgomery of Good Deeds was replied to by Mrs. Glen Bateman of Kirkcaldy.

Mrs. Maisey welcomed the Provincial President, Mrs. M. G. Roberts of Drumheller and District 4 Director, Mrs. Carl Alexander of Cayley, each expressing their pleasure in being present. Corsages were presented to the honored guests, and to Mrs. Maisey and Mrs. Scobie by Mrs. Russell Hegland and Mrs. George Dingwall, president of the hostess branches.

Nominations, Resolutions and Courtesy committees were appointed. Secretary reports from Champion, Barons, Reid Hill, Good Deeds, Thigh Hill and Kirkcaldy were read.

Two recitations by Miss Janet Ware of Vulcan were greatly enjoyed.

In Mrs. Alexander's address she praised the Girls Club work in Alberta but stated, leaders were in great demand.

The Lady Tweedsmuir competitions for Cultural, History and Handicraft are on a national basis and a cup for each will be presented to the top winner in 1964 at the National Convention. She urged members to enter these competitions in the Provincial convention in 1962 at Edmonton.

Our obligations to the AWI should not be forgotten as the dues paid each year are not sufficient to carry on the WI work. In closing Mrs. Alexander stated that Women's Institutes are well organized in the northern part of Alberta and include the Indian and Eskimo women.

Standing committee reports on Health by Mrs. John French, Home Economics by Mrs. McMasters, United Nations by Mrs. Chester, Education, Mrs. Hegland, Agriculture and Canadian Industries, Mrs. Little, Social Services, Mrs. Brown, Citizenship, Mrs. Davies, Handicraft by Mrs. McLeod were accepted.

The afternoon session of the conference opened with the singing of WI songs, "The Prayer of Peace" with Mrs. Hunziger of Champion as pianist. Mrs. Kotkas of Barons favored the meeting with two humorous readings. A skit on marriage by Mrs. Hegland of Champion and Mrs. Murray of Kirkcaldy proved very interesting.

Mrs. Frank Little of Champion read a paper on "Constituency Highlights" stating that the first Constituency Conference was held in Carmangay on Sept. 19, 1919 with Mrs. Agnes MacKay as convener. Mrs. MacKay was presented with a corsage from the 44th Constituency Conference by Mrs. Maisey.

Mrs. Roberts, president of the Alberta Women's Institute has found the WI a friend in the time of need and distress. She asked if we were using all our resources in drawing women of our community into our WI? The need today is just as great as years ago and we should do all we can to encourage new members especially the young women to join us and work for Home and Country. Internationally Mrs. Roberts was delegate to attend the ACWW Conference in Australia this fall to represent Alberta.

The Lady Aberdeen Scholarship has been founded to educate women of underdeveloped countries in order that they may return to their native countries and educate their people. The first student was a woman from Ghana who studied nutrition in London last year, the second student from Trinidad has been accepted recently and will obtain her education in Ireland.

Mrs. Roberts encouraged each branch to study the standing committee subjects. Today we have so many more tools to work with, films, books, speakers, University extension service etc., for different and interesting programmes. She urged us to read and study the Home and Country, Federated News, Biennial Convention report books, Federated Report book, Countrywomen, also to conserve our WI history and publicize our ly as our share for maintaining the good work. Alberta pays $25 yearly as our share for maintaining International Peace Garden.

The Home Economists, Mrs. Cox of Calgary, Miss Bartman and Mrs. Olson of Lethbridge judged the handicraft and home cooking display and gave many constructive criticisms. The handicraft plaque was won for the third year by Barons WI with 645 points, thus enabling Barons to keep the plaque. The Home Economist plaque was won by Reid Hill with 136 points.

Mrs. Davies of Barons invited the Conference to be held at Barons in 1963.

A resolution that tobacco advertising be placed under restrictions such as apply to alcohol was passed.

Mrs. Rascum of Australia spoke briefly on how close knit the WI's in each country of the world are, and how the same problems seem to arise.

Letters to the Editor

Champion, Alta.
June 4, 1962

To the Editor of The Advocate,
Dear Sir:

In your May 30 issue of the Advocate, you list 13 ways to ruin a town.

Why stop at 13?
I am sure the county school committee chairman and his able assistants can list several more. Here are a few:

Never give the ratepayer a chance to vote. Sneak in and call a meeting of as few parents as possible. Be sure you have brain washed a few dopes into seeing your side, then have them present a petition of a selected few to the school committee.

Don't mind if it takes two or three years, as long as their good centralization is served. The man in the street, the local taxpayer, or the good of the little towns doesn't count.

Why stop at 13?

John C. Green of Herronton in the May 12 issue of your paper gives the readers a clear view of how this committee works.

We, the people of Champion, were told two years ago, that grade 12 could not be taught in Champion, because teachers would not come to the little towns to teach. This, in spite of the fact that Champion has had a grade 12 record in the past that has been second to none. Yes, we have had boys and girls leave our high school to become doctors, lawyers, engineers, nurses, teachers etc. These students, many of which were scholarship winners as well as honor students.

Once again this committee has come to Champion, this time, to take grades 10 and 11 out of our school.

Oh, they have many reasons why our children should be loaded into buses and transported up to 60 to 80 miles a day, over railway crossings several times, for their own good "they say."

Leaving empty schools and teacherages that cost us thousands of dollars to build and move in, because teachers, they keep taking away from us, we are told will not live here.

I wonder how many tax dollars it will take to transport our children to Vulcan, compared to teachers being paid mileage to teach subjects in Champion, if they do not live here!

I wonder about this sufficient room they have in Vulcan to accommodate our students, and if we as taxpayers, will have a vote when they want two or three hundred thousand dollars, to build a new school in Vulcan, in the very near future.

I wonder about our leading citizens of our town, aiding such a school committee, by circulating a petition to get rid of our high school, when they should be calling for a plebiscite, and an investigation into a system that will not heed the voice of the people of Herronton or Champion, or any other town or district, that supplies their life blood, the tax dollar, and elects them to the office they now hold.

I, also wonder, at parents of children in grades 10, 11 and 12, good of millions of children, who who vote on what our children will do five or 10 years from now. Have we not the right to vote too?

There are still some of us with children, or our children's children, not yet in high school, who would like the right to vote, remembering too well, and at first hand, another system we had to fight against, to hail the county, and centralization and be denied this right?

The superintendent of county schools at the closing exercises for grade 12, on the evening of June 1, in Vulcan, spoke of "The Winds that Blow," meaning centralization, I understand, or could they mean the winds to block our freedom, as they did over Europe, a few short years ago, for the issue, and if a brief presented to the school committee, by our children still in school, in spite of the councillor, will ever be published, the "thirteen ways to ruin a town." —Champion 33 years.

Air-inflated toys add a lot of color to a beach scene. They put a kind of carefree gaiety into the picture. Yet those same colorful toys can be the cause of a tragic disaster. The slightest breeze will carry them into deep water and lure a child out beyond its depth. Your Red Cross reminds you to keep air-inflated toys up on the beach at all times and supervise young children constantly when near the water. Be Water-Wise.

DIRECT METHOD OF ARTIFICIAL RESPIRATION

If victim is not breathing begin artificial respiration at once. Wipe out quickly any foreign matter visible in the mouth, using your fingers or a cloth wrapped around your fingers.

Tilt victim's head back. Pull or push the jaw into a jutting-out position. If the mouth (or jaw) will not open, seal the mouth and blow air into the victim's nose.

If victim is a small child, place your mouth tightly over his mouth and nose and blow gently into his lungs about 20 times a minute. If victim is an adult, cover the mouth with your mouth, pinch his nostrils shut, and blow vigorously about 12 times a minute.

If unable to get air into lungs of victim, and if head and jaw positions are correct, suspect foreign matter in throat. To remove it, suspend a small child momentarily by the ankles or place child in a jack-knife position with arm under his stomach. Slap him sharply between shoulder blades.

If victim is an adult lie him on the ground in a jack-knife position and slap him sharply between the shoulder blades.

WATER SAFETY

- After a meal, wait 2 hours before swimming — a sensible precaution against cramps.
- Swim parallel to the shore, so that you can always see it — this way, you're never too far from safety.
- Never swim alone and preferably only where there are life-guards or people trained in life-saving.
- Enter strange water feet first.
- Condition your body to the water by splashing your ankles, wrist, neck and chest.
- Parents: always supervise children in or near water. Even that backyard plastic pool should be emptied when not supervised.

BOATING SAFETY

- A boat pulling a skier must have a crew of two — one to drive, one to watch the skier.
- Always remain seated in a small boat or canoe.
- When using a row-boat to rescue a swimmer in trouble, bring him aboard over the stern. In a canoe, lift him in over the side, in the mid-section.
- Never overload your boat. Make sure everyone in it wears an approved life jacket.
- If your boat overturns, remain with it. Hold onto the gunwales and wait for help.
